Saturday, August 11. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated August 4.

Warsaw, June 18.

THE 14th at Night 500 Swedish Horse and some Walachians arriv'd near this Place, under the Command of General Nierothe, and went and encamp'd at Viasdow; whither the other 500 Swedes that were in our Castle march'd and joyn'd them, a few excepted who remain'd to attend the Marshal as Guards. The 15th General Nierothe dispatch'd an Express to the King of Sweden, to desire a Reinforcement, apprehending his Body of Troops was not strong enough to make Head against the Poles and Saxons in this Part of the Country. The 16th in the Morning 9 Deputies of the Palatinate of Cracow arriv'd here, and took up their Lodging in the Palace of the Bishop of Cracow. The same day the Deputies of the Magistrates of this City and the neighbouring Territory, repairing to Viasdow, General Nierothe order'd them to furnish his Army daily with 8000 Pounds of Bread, 130 Barrels of Beer, a certain large Quantity of Oats; and the Sum of 20000 Tymphes monthly. Yesterday Morning a Regiment of Swedish Horse arriv'd at the said Camp; and some of Monsieur Smigelski's Troops were seen at Obory, where they seiz'd 20 Swedes and 3 Walachians; but the Troops of the Castellan of Potaneck that had pass'd the Vistula, were fallen upon by some Swedes, who kill'd 30 of them and took several Prisoners, besides some that perish'd in repassing the River. The Saxons that were at Praag, are retir'd towards Radzim, and we hear Monsieur Smigelski is march'd the same Way. To Day the Deputies, in number 14, met in the Castle; and prorogu'd themselves to the 20th. We have an Account from Brzeze in Lithuania that the Court of King Augustus continues there, and that there is a numerous Congress of Senators and Ministers, in which it has been resolv'd that the Marshal of the general Confederacy of Sandomir shall publish Universalia, for calling a Council, and to invite all the Senators and Deputies of Palatinates to it, in Order to resolve upon proper Measures for maintaining King Augustus, and for the Good of the Republick against all the Acts and Efforts of the contrary Party. Among the Men of Quality who assited at this Congress, were the Palatines of Inowoclawia, Mazovia, &c. Prince Wadowski Castellan of Wilna, and those of Posnania, Rava, Brzeze, Czechovia, &c. the Prince of Radzivil great Chancellor of Lithuania, with the Vice-Chancellor, the Marshal, the Referendarius of the great Dutchy, and several others. The Army of Lithuania was advancing towards Brzeze, and 'tis confirm'd that the Czar is marching with his Army towards Wilna and Kowna.

From the Amsterdam Courant and Gaz. dated Aug. 4.

Dresden, July 29. The Princess Sobieski, lately arriv'd from Vienna, had leave from King Augustus of Poland to see and speak with Prince James her Husband, the 28th Instant, in the Castle of Pleissenburg at Leipzick. Being shewn into his Apartment, she was so surpriz'd to see him with his black Beard grown long like a Hermit's that she swoon'd away; coming to her self, she had 2 Hours Discourse with him; but the Gouverneur of the Castle was present all the while. None of her Retinue were permitted to see the Prince; but Father Wolff was admitted to him. That Father uses his utmost Endeavours to procure the Liberty of that Prince and of his Brother Constantine; and 'tis certain that Affair is Negotiating, and may probably be brought to a good End, provided those Princes can give sufficient Security for their peaceful Behaviour hereafter. The Prince is gone back to Vienna. The 4000 Men K. Augustus promis'd to send to the Army of the Empire, as his Contingent, continue in this Electorate, and 'tis now a doubt whether they will be order'd to march to the said Army or not.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated August 8.

Dresden, August 1. Two Days ago the King of Poland set out on a Journey through the Country of Anhalt to Gomeren on the Frontier of Brandenburg, being accompanied by the Prince of Furstenberg, the Chamberlain Pflug, and Monsieur Vitzthum Master of the Horse: 'tis discou'r'd a personal Interview is appointed between King Augustus and the King of Prussia; but there is yet no certainty of it. Some Letters from Dantzick say, the Cardinal Primate design'd to have gone from thence secretly to France, but was prevented by the Swedish General Meyerfeldt.

Hamburg, August 4. We are inform'd by Letters from Poland, that the pretended King Stanislaus designs to go to Warsaw, and that the Swedish General Horn is likewise to go thither, to treat of Peace with Poland, as Ambassador from the King his Master, and to hasten the Coronation of Stanislaus; but the Bishops of Poland dare not appear at the Diet in Warsaw, fearing to lose their Benefices, as they are threaten'd by the Pope's Brief; and the Estates of Lithuania are assembled, with design to protest against, and declare void all that shall be done in the said Diet at Warsaw, to the Prejudice of King Augustus.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated August 11.

Berlin, Aug. 4. 'Tis advis'd from Poland, that several thousand Poles and Saxons being advanc'd near to Warsaw, the Deputies that were come to the Diet summon'd thither by the Cardinal Primate, took such a Fright that they all fled out of the City leaving the Marshal by himself; but that 3 or 4 of them being taken by the Swedes were carry'd back again; That however the said Diet was look'd upon to be as good as broken and come to nothing. Letters from Dantzick say the Cardinal Primate was gone to Tyeenhof, a Country Seat 5 or 6 Miles from thence, that he is to have an Interview with the King of Sweden, and that he designs to propose to him to quit the Party of Stanislaus and to advance a 3d Person to the Crown.

Dresden, Aug. 5. They write from Poland, that the King of Sweden continues at Rawitz, and that he has been ill of a Fever 7 or 8 days, but is recover'd: That the Weywod Potocki, who lately form'd a new Party against King Augustus, is marching towards Sokal with 17000 Men, to bring over the Nobility of the Province of Padolia and others to the Interest of the King of Sweden: And that the Minister of the Czar of Muscovy, who had been at Brzeze 3 Months, went from thence the 18th of last Month with some Senators, to meet the Czar who was expected at Brzeze the 24th. There is little or no Preparation made for the March of the Saxon Troops

Troops from this Electorate back into Poland ; most of the Horse continue still in their Quarters.

Warsaw, July 24. The Diet here has not only done nothing yet, but the Deputies of Lencizia are slipt out of the Town and gone home again ; and 'tis certain those of Cracow and the Marshal himself, would steal away too, but that the Swedes keep a watchful Eye over them. Mean time, they are under great Fears ; for 4000 Saxons, 40 Troops of Lithuanians, and the greatest Part of the Crown Army under the Starost Smigelski are come to Praag, and expect to be joyn'd by the Lithuanian Field-Marshal with 60 Troops more. The Swedes have put most of their Baggage into our Castle, and are Night and Day in Arms, being inform'd the Saxons are laying a Bridge over the Vistula. The Congrefs, or Council, at Brzeſe, have protested against the Diet conven'd here by Virtue of the Cardinal Primate's Universalia, have declar'd all that shall appear and act in it to be Enemies of their Country, and have sworn to continue steadfast in their Loyalty to King Augustus.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated August 11.

Warsaw, July 28. Four Deputies of the Palatinat of Cracow set out from hence the 23d, to return home ; so that there are but 5 of that Palatinat remaining here, with 3 of the Palatinat of Lencizia. None but the Marshal was that Day at the Castle where the Diet is held ; he prorogu'd it to the next day ; but no body appearing then neither, he prorogu'd it to the 29th. General Nieroth has sent circular Letters throughout the Palatinat of Mazovia, summoning the Inhabitants to bring him Contributions for subsisting his Army ; Mean time Provisions are so dear, the Troops can hardly get subsittance. Mr. Urbanowski, King Stanislaus's Secretary, arriv'd here to Day ; he puts us in Hopes that several Deputies will arrive here in a few days, and affirms they are on their Way. Notwithstanding which 'tis talk'd that after the Council that is to be held to Morrow, the Deputies that are here will take a turn home, till they hear other Deputies are arriv'd, and that the Assembly grows numerous.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated August 15.

Dresden, Aug. 8. The King of Poland is gone to Goerlitz, where 'tis said his Troops are to draw together. They write from Brzeſe the 24th of last Month, that the Czar, with the Prince his Son, his chief Minister Menschikov and other Persons of Quality, was not arriv'd there, but was still expected : and that in the mean time his Forces are on the March by several Routes into Poland.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated August 15.

Amsterdam Aug. 14. Letters from Poland, dated the 1st Instant, tell us all the Deputies of Palatinats that were at Warsaw, are return'd home ; one only excepted, who remains there with the Marshal.

Taymouth, Aug. 8. Yesterday came in these Roads Her Majesty's Ships the Swan, and Boneta, with between 20 and 30 Sail of laden Colliers and Coasters bound for the River. Here remains Her Majesty's Ship the Chatham Prize, and this Day came into other Roads about 30 Sail of light Colliers.

London, August 11.

Yesterday in the Afternoon an Express arriv'd at the Admiralty with an Account that Capt. Bockenham in the Chatham and Capt. Canning in the Worcester have taken 2 French Men of War of 50 Guns each, viz. The Auguste and Jason, off the Lizard.
